

A Match Made In Horses

A Column By Maggi Painter

This column is dedicated to the women behind the scenes, whether they are an owner, trainer's daughter, or just employed in the industry and married to a horse trainer. This column will allow walking horse enthusiasts to learn the impact the horse trainer's wife has on the industry. If you have been in the business and married a horse trainer, please email Maggi Painter at the Walking Horse Report at Painter@horseworld.net.

1.
How long have you been married?

answer

2.
How long have you been in the walking horse industry?

answer

3.
How were you involved in the horse business prior to meeting your husband? (owner, trainer's daughter, employed in the industry, etc.)

answer

4.
How did you meet your husband?

answer

5.
Do you have any children? If yes, how many, their names and ages.

answer

6.
What first attracted you to your husband?

answer

7.
What is the best part of being married to a horse trainer?

answer

8.
What is the worst part of being married to a horse trainer?

answer

9.
If you had to do it all over again would you do anything differently?

answer

10.
What is one of the fondest and/or funniest moments of showing horses with your husband?

answer

Walking Horse Report